

Structured Language Experience Story “ac” #1

Jake never cleaned up his room. There were obstacles all over the floor such as macaroni, tractors, and lilacs. In the middle of the mess was a loose raccoon! Jake’s mom said he would have to start packing if he didn’t get his room intact. In fact, he opened up a big sack and like a maniac he went into action. He threw all of the stacks of mess into the sack. When it was full, he hauled it away on a tractor.
