

Structured Language Experience Story “ag” #1

I'm a shaggy pirate from the seventh fleet. I fly the rag of a black flag. I have a dagger at my side. I can make any man stagger with one look from my black and dark eyes. I will not let any of my men lag behind. I'll drag them back to work in a bag if they give me any trouble. I don't mind bragging; you see, they call me the dragon of the sea. My ship is called the Dragon's Wagon, you see. If you see the black flag of the Dragon's Wagon, you'd better be taking off in the opposite direction, drawn away like a magnet.
