

Structured Language Experience Story “ake” #1

Drake decided he would bake a cake to take up to the lake. He and Blake were taking a break from the give-and-take community they were living in. They invited Jake and his new wife to join them for a hotcake and clambake dinner. Jake’s wife was to make cheesecake for dessert. When they woke up they mistakenly made johnnycakes instead of pancakes. Drake was shaking his head at this honest mistake. He told them to forget about the pancakes and eat cornflakes or cupcakes instead. Everyone was happy that they didn’t have to fake that they wanted to bake all day at the lake.
