

Structured Language Experience Story “all” #2

Walter Phaller left his small child with his wife, Sally, while he ran errands. First, Walter went to the Chall Mall to buy wallpaper for his ballroom. Then he walked to Grall’s Market to buy salsa, salt, basalmic vinegar, walnuts, and saltwater taffy. But, when he got there he had an altercation with Mr. Grall who had told him a falsehood. This fallout halted his plans for shopping at Grall’s Market.

So, Walter headed to his home on Shalty Lane. When he arrived, Sally told him that he had faltered on his shopping mission, but she knew the altercation wasn’t his fault.

