

Structured Language Experience Story “am” #1

The family had just bought a ram. The famished ram made a shamble of the family’s camp. The ram, named Bam, quickly knocked over the jam. Next, Tammy gambled that the ram would knock over the amps to the radio. But instead, the ram ran into the lamp. Finally the family caught Bam the ram eating a ham. “Oh, what a shambles that Bam the ram made,” said Sam. “It couldn’t be worse if the tramps had moved into our camp.”
