

Structured Language Experience Story “an” #1

Sandy bought some candy at the zoo. Mandy, Randy, and Andy went with her to see the panda bears. The panda bear was standing on the land by the pond. There was a yellow band on the panda bear’s paw. “What is that band for?” inquired Sandy. “I think it has information about the panda bear,” stated Mandy. Just then Randy saw a little boy who was vandalizing the panda bear sign. “Hey, little boy, get your hand off that paint can,” yelled Andy. The little boy ran away.
