

Structured Language Experience Story “an” #1

Bystanders watched Alexandria acting in an outlandish manner as she stood on the verandah of the Island Club. They soon learned that Alexandria was banned from the Island Club because she was mishandling the flowers. In order to rejoin, she was commanded to use her handiness to water the oleanders and make garlands from the bands of flowers in the garden. She made the grandest garlands of anyone and soon landed a job as a florist with the Island Club. Now, she stands on the verandah and hands bystanders garlands of oleanders.
