

Structured Language Experience Story “ap” #1

As it happened, Chad had a huge appetite. “Perhaps you would like some flapjacks,” said his Pappy. “Place your napkin in your lap,” commanded Pappy. Chad did it in a snap. He was happy to get some apple flapjacks. Grandpappy said, “There is also syrup I made from the sap of sugar maple trees.” Chad opened the flap of the syrup and poured it on his flapjacks. I have never seen flapjacks disappear so rapidly.
