

Structured Language Experience Story
“ar” #1

Stars at Night

Tonight we are going to look at the stars. We wait until dark and then get in our car. We find a parking place far from the city lights. Soon the stars will start to shine. Those stars look like a shark. And the ones over there look like they're having a party. Tomorrow my teacher will think I'm so smart as I tell her about the stars I saw tonight.