

Structured Language Experience Story “are” #1

Garett was a carefree daredevil who was rarely ever scared. One day he had a harebrained idea. Garett was going to jump over a warehouse while riding barefooted on a barebacked horse.

Karen stared at Garett and begged him to be careful. She was so scared that she would end up being his caregiver. But, Garett did not share her fear.

Without a care in the world, Garett said, “Farewell!” and went to the barebacked mare. The trumpets blared and the snare drums played. Garett was placing his barefoot on the mare when it became scared in the glare of the lights. The mare ran away from the warehouse. So, Karen no longer has a reason to be scared.
