

Structured Language Experience Story “ash” #1

The woman was interested in the fashion show. What a great bash it will be. The sash that goes with that dress will be a smash. Are you sure that it doesn't clash with the sash? No, I have not found another fashion designer as brash as you. You will make a lot of cash on this fashion show; you are not too rash. Did you sew the fabric that has a gash in it? Yes, it is all ready for the fashion show. Nash has dashed down to the bank to get some cash for the bash.
