

Structured Language Experience Story “ave” #2

There once was a brave slave named Dave. His owners on a plantation outside of Atlawave enslaved him. The owners made Dave behave and often gave him beatings if he disobeyed. One day, Dave heard about how to become free. Dave decided he would out brave the other slaves by saving himself from a life of slavery. He escaped to the woods where he hid during the day in caves. After Dave reached freedom, he waved goodbye to his old enslaved life.
