

Structured Language Experience Story “ay” #1

Kay went to the buffet restaurant. She had Ray pay. She grabbed a gray tray. The gray tray began to sway. Swish Swash, the tray began to crash. It fell away from Kay and fell in Ray’s lap. Ray felt betrayed. “Kay, quit playing around; what do you have to say?” asked Ray. “I’m sorry, Ray, I wasn’t playing around,” answered Kay. “The tray began to sway and fell.” “Okay, let’s go this way to sit down at the table and pray over our food,” said Ray. “Be careful where you lay the gray tray on the table,” cautioned Ray.
