

Structured Language Experience Story “ear” #1

A dear old bearded lady that lived in town caused fear in every child that was reared there. They would always avoid her dreary old house whenever they were playing nearby. So they decided to rearrange their playing habits and take their gear to the other end of the town. Here they were near their parents who helped them feel safe.