

Structured Language Experience Story “eck” #2

My friend Becky had a gecko. It was speckled. I wanted to buy a speckled gecko, too. On my way to the store, I saw a car wreck. I stopped to help, and the lady was so thankful she wrote me a check. I used the check to buy a gecko and a necklace. When I got home, I put the gecko in a cage on my deck while I wiped a speck of dirt off my new necklace.
