

Structured Language Experience Story “eg” #1

Meg and her friends were going on a boat trip. They all got on deck to begin their trip. First they had to check to see if they had everything. Everything looked shipshape except for a speck of dirt on the rail. As they began their trip a big storm came up. It wasn't long before they were wrecked. Meg hurt her leg on a peg that was sticking out over the deck.