

Structured Language Experience Story “el(l)” #1

The melodramatic tenor was melancholy because the audience wasn't immediately yelling his name. Since they were compelled to listen, they soon fell under the spell of the music and yelled cheers. The tenor lost his melancholy feeling. Afterwards, the singer's relatives celebrated inside the belfry of an old church. The belfry was guarded by the helpful sentinel, Mel. Mel welcomed them and told everyone to ride the elevator to the top of the belfry and join the celebration.
