

Structured Language Experience Story “end” #1

My friend Kevin lives down at the end of my road. I spend a lot of time with him. He rides his bike down and around the bend and lends me his books to read. Sometimes I mend his books. I like to send him letters just for fun. They tend to make him laugh. I like my friend Kevin.