

Structured Language Experience Story “ent” #2

The students at Trident elementary School were having a talent show. Invitations were sent to their entire student enrollment, including the superintendent. The show was being performed in a huge tent. It was going to be a very big event. The ladies and gentlemen in the audience were all in agreement that the show was an apparent success. The superintendent issued a statement to the students, “Keep implementing your talents in all areas of your life!”
