

Structured Language Experience Story “ev” #1

Evan saw everyone every day at his job at Seven Eleven in the city of Cleverever. Evidently, everybody forgot to develop a list before ever going shopping. This caused several people to forget items whenever they shopped. So, they had to stop at Seven Eleven.

Nevertheless, Evan was happy that everyone came to Seven Eleven. This created an everlasting revenue for his store. This shopping habit became so prevalent in Cleverever that Evan developed several Seven Elevens across the city.
