

Structured Language Experience Story “im” #1

Jim, Tim, and Kim went for a swim. It was starting to get dark and the light became dim. The water in the pool was filled to the brim. So the slim Kim jumped into the water first. “The water is just right for a swim,” she said to Jim and Tim. Next the trim Tim began to swim in the pool. Jim finally took the plunge and began to swim all the way to Tim.
