

Structured Language Experience Story “ip” #1

Skipper, the horse, was going on a trip by ship. He was tied to a rope in the shipyard. Chip was a shipbuilder's dog. He lived with Kip in a trailer by an old shipwreck. Chip ripped through the clip that Kip had used to fasten him. Chip had slipped past Kip and flipped open the door to the trailer. Chip took a nip out of Skipper on his hip. So Skipper kicked Chip in the lip. Chip ran back to the shipwreck. It was all over in a jiffy.
