

Structured Language Experience Story "ish" #1

Trish had her own magic catfish named Fishcat. Now Fishcat could live on land or in water and Trish took him everywhere she went. One day, Trish and Fishcat met Kingfisher the Scottish magic catfish collector who wanted to capture and eat Fishcat. Kingfisher especially liked catfish cooked with radishes. Kingfisher chased Trish and Fishcat all the way back to Trish's house, but when he cornered Trish in her room, Fishcat was nowhere to be found. Kingfisher fiendishly searched the house knocking over furnishings and behaving childishly because he couldn't have what he wanted. Soon the police came and took Kingfisher away. Trish went to get Fishcat from his hiding place but she left him there since he seemed very happy squishing and swishing around inside the dishwasher.
