

Structured Language Experience Story "ish" #2

Trish had one wish that she could have a fish in a dish. The fish would swish his tail in the dish. Trish wanted that fish so badly that she went to a fisherman in town and asked him to catch her a fish. The fisherman understood her wish. So he caught her a fish. The fisherman gave it to Trish. Trish quickly put the fish in her big, clear dish. The fish swished his tail and began to swim. Trish had her wish.

by D. Brakefield