

Structured Language Experience Story “ock” #1

It was the Fourth of July. I sat on the dock. I took off my socks and put my feet in the water. It was 12 o'clock. Some burdock grew by the dock, beneath a hemlock. A flock of sheep grazed nearby. Down the block Tony was working on his bike sprockets with a socket wrench. He got oil on his Dockers.

Suddenly a skyrocket blasted off. It scared us on the dock, and Tony down the block. It was a shocker!