

Structured Language Experience Story “om” #1

Tom was prompted to try out for a prominent role in a comedy. This was a common role for Tom that complimented his personality. He did not like somber shows or commentaries that dropped bombshells.

Tom promised that his comedy would be combustible and set the audience on fire. He opened his act eating a pomegranate and playing a tom-tom with the seeds. Suddenly the zombies in the audience came alive with laughter. This prompted the TV owners to compliment Tom and promise him the role in the comedy.
