

Structured Language Experience Story “on” #1

Ron and Don left the condominium driving their convertible to Lonton Beach. Once they arrived, they had to consider whether to ride in the gondola or on the pontoon boat.

The pontoon boat owners offered a considerable amount of food to eat. They were serving mongoose, honey, and bonbons. Don was very nonchalant about the pontoon. He told Ron to concentrate on the gondola. They were giving a free concert. The gondola's concert music was contagious.

Ron and Don began to ponder their two choices. But, the news that a monster monsoon was about to arrive had them dashing to their convertible. Ron and Don congratulated themselves on arriving at the condominium before the monster monsoon arrived.