

Structured Language Experience Story “ou” #1

The children went to the playground. They saw a mound of dirt. Beside it was a little black hound. He was very proud of his mound. The children shouted at the little hound because he had dug up their playground. A large amount of dirt caused a deep hole. Someone said, “It looks like a mountain.” Now all the children bound to the playground to climb the hound’s mound.