

Structured Language Experience Story “oy” #1

I once knew a boy who liked to dress like a cowboy. He had all his clothes in his toy-box. When he would dress it brought him such joy. He was like royalty when he wore his cowboy clothes. One day he decided to get a job as a newsboy. Now he was employed and could enjoy so many things. He used his money to buy a pet oyster and a new cowboy hat.