

Structured Language Experience Story “um” #1

The clown began to fumble with the drum. Soon the rumble was very loud. The clown stumbled and tumbled down the hill. The clown looked pretty glum. Then another clown, who was dressed like a bum, brought a plum pie to his chum the clown. The first clown began to rub his tummy and mouth the words, “Yum, yum.” However the bum clown started to stumble and he tumbled; the whole plum pie fell right into the clown’s face.
