

Structured Language Experience Story “un” #1

It was a sunny Sunday when the hunter entered the jungle with his gun. It was only a stun gun, but a gun all the same. It was fun being in the jungle and feeling a little unsafe for the hunter. Just then he saw something run into the underbrush. He looked carefully and saw a funny little mundane bunny. The hunter was unhappy that he only found a funny little mundane bunny in the underbrush of the jungle.
