

Structured Language Experience Story “ush” #2

A hunter was flushing a thrush from the underbrush. Suddenly a farmer rushed by on his horse and offered to sell him some muskmelon and mushrooms. But, the hunter gave him the brush-off and yelled, “Hush, I’m trying to catch the thrush.” Blushing, the farmer rode off in a rush. Finally, the hunter crushed some rushes and placed them near the underbrush. The thrush flew into the rushes and was stuck.