

Structured Language Experience Story “ut” #2

Today is little Johnny’s birthday and little Johnny’s mother said he could be king for a day. So Johnny is now King Utmost the fourth of Egypt and he can do anything he wants to do. First, King Utmost went to play putt-putt golf and got a hole in one when he hit his ball through a pair of shutters. Then King Utmost played in the wading pool and got to scuttle a pirate ship. Someone dared to splash King Utmost and muttering and sputtering to himself he splashed them back. King Utmost went to an amusement park and rode a roller coaster; boy did his stomach flutter. At the end of the day King Utmost celebrated his birthday by eating Dutch apple pie and nutmeg ice cream.
