

About Point Writing Response Planning Guide and Summary

Outline:	Summary:
About: Grizzly bears' characteristics Point: make them unique from other bears. Details: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Fur varies in shades of white, blond, brown and black. Tips of fur are lighter giving a grizzled effect.2. Habitat is usually inland among forested land and shrubs which provide cover for escape.3. Eat berries, plants, pine nuts, ground dwelling rodents, moose, elk, mountain goats and sheep.4. Cubs are born between January and March. Closing: Grizzly bears are distinct from other bears.	Grizzly bears' characteristics make them unique from other bears. Their fur is varied shades of white, blond, brown or black. The tips of their fur are lighter giving them a grizzled effect. Their habitat is usually inland among forested land and shrubs which provide cover for escape. They eat a variety of food including berries, plants, pine nuts, ground dwelling rodents, moose, elk, mountain goats and sheep. Their cubs are born between January and March. Grizzly bears are distinct from other bears.